

WHO'S ON THE MOVE IN COLUMBIA, SC

- ON THE MOVE
- ARIAL
- OP-ED
- NEWS
- ADVICE
- CAREERS
- EVENTS
- PODCAST
- LAW
- NEWSLETTERS
- MIDLANDS LIFE

Search

- Home
- About
- Advertise
- Contact Us
- Visit UpstateBizSC
- Visit LowcountryBizSC

You are here: Home / Law / On The Move / Turner Padget's Lanny Lambert Elected As Leader of the National Conference of Bar Presidents

Turner Padget's Lanny Lambert Elected As Leader of the National Conference of Bar Presidents

August 26, 2015

COLUMBIA, SC – Turner Padget Graham & Laney P.A. announces that Lanneau Wm. ("Lanny") Lambert, Jr. has been elected as president of the National Conference of Bar Presidents (NCBP). Lambert, a shareholder in the firm's real estate practice group, is the first member from South Carolina to be elected as president of the organization since 1970. He will guide the NCBP in its mission to educate and train local and state bar association leaders.

"We are proud of Lanny's outstanding achievements in bar leadership," said R. Wayne Byrd, chief executive officer of Turner Padget. "His election to lead NCBP is a clear representation of his tremendous influence, not only in South Carolina, but in the national legal community as well. He has an undeniable passion for leading and serving other lawyers to advance our profession and encourage its future leaders, and we look forward to supporting him in this new role."

Lambert has been actively involved in bar association work throughout his entire legal career. He served as president of the South Carolina Bar from 2007 to 2008, and is a past president of the South Carolina Bar Young Lawyers Division. He also served on the board of the South Carolina Bar Foundation.

"I am extremely honored to have been elected by my peers for this role," said Lanny Lambert. "Serving our profession has been a priority throughout my career, and I am honored to continue these efforts in a role that will influence bar leadership across the country."

At Turner Padget, Lambert serves clients in business transactions, including commercial real estate matters, contractual agreements and financing. He regularly represents both lenders and borrowers on matters ranging from financing to loans to land development and zoning. Lambert also works with small and midsized clients handling contracts and leases, and other day-to-day business matters.

The NCBP was founded in 1950 to provide information and training to local and state bar association leaders. Current members include bar leaders from 53 states and territories. The primary mission of the organization is to provide high-quality programming to current bar leaders at two meetings held each year in conjunction with the annual and midyear meetings of the American Bar Association.

Turner Padget

Turner Padget recently celebrated its 85th anniversary as one of South Carolina's leading law firms, providing straightforward, practical advice to meet clients' legal needs. With offices strategically located in Charleston, Columbia, Florence, Greenville and Myrtle Beach, the firm's attorneys have a deep understanding of South Carolina's laws and what it takes to do business in the Palmetto State. For more information, please visit Turner Padget online at www.turnerpadget.com.

IN : Law, On The Move

< PREVIOUS ARTICLE
Studio 2LR, Inc. announces new hire

NEXT ARTICLE >
SC Arts Commission awards $3.2 Million in grants

SOCIAL LINKS

NEWSLETTER

Regions:

- MidlandsBiz
- UpstateBizSC
- LowcountryBizSC
- MidlandsLife

Email address:

Your email address

Sign up

SEARCH ARTICLES

Search ...

All Categories

mm/dd/yyyy

mm/dd/yyyy

Submit

H

ABOUT

TERMS

CONTACT US